
Lower curves and lower AURC indicate better concentration of errors into rejected predictions.